I need a Lawyer. IQVIA has been holding up my unemployment insurance. So after being abused by Mark Snyder for 3 years. I am being screwed financially. I am a whistleblower and they are doing everything in there power to hurt me more than they already have.

I was abused by my boss for three years. It has f'd me up pretty bad. I want my pound of flesh. I was asked to send out a million plus unsolicited faxes unser direction of my boss the truth needs to come out. I also used client files from the pharmaceutical industry to recruit physicians. Problem is the client files were no longer clients. We should have deleted the list instead greed and desperation to recruit panelist and survey takers was more important then doing the right thing.

What do you do when your questioning if what you did for you boss was ethical. Better yet what do you do when your boss treated you differently for years?
